Having you by my side is unbeatable
You make dark times look bright
Always full of ideas, you are sparkling with life
Nothing means more than you three mean to me
It's so hard to describe
How I feel inside
Just can't express it in words
Coz my love is so strong that it almost hurts
Nothing is more valuable than you all are to me

All I want is to give you the safety
That I lacked in my own childhood days
I want your zest for life to keep growing
And I hope that it always remains

I hope none of you feel
Slighted by me
So afraid to fall short
I try hard to be fair and be there for you all
Nothing is as valuable, as you all are to me

All I want is to give you the safety
That I lacked in my own childhood days
I want your zest for life to keep growing
And I hope that it always remains

Small humans with a passion for life
Strong wills that sometimes lead us to strife

Nothing is more valuable than you all are to me

All I want is to give you the safety
That I lacked in my own childhood days
You believe in yourself and in others
And I want you to keep it that way
