Danger, danger!

We tell our kids of Robin Hood
But then we do not bother
Whenever we have got to share ourselves
The unemployment's getting worse
The statesmen blame each other
And raise their own salaries, then hide in shells
The crime goes up
And it won't stop
Unless there's something done

Danger - the bitterness is in the air
And no one seems to care
Danger - the tears and the anger's everywhere
I'm telling you
Danger - the bitterness is in the air
Oh, don't you see that
No one can be happy living in the gloom
Listen to my symphony of doom

You say that our world is full
Of crazies and of dangers
But have you tried to find the reasons why?
Some can't support their families
But we're not helping strangers
But still expect their kids to turn out fine
We go beserk
If we're out of work
Despair, no confidence

Danger - the bitterness is in the air
And no one seems to care
Danger - the tears and the anger's everywhere
I'm telling you
Danger - the bitterness is in the air
Oh, don't you see that
No one can be happy living in the gloom
Listen to my symphony of doom

Can't get a job

Who cares?
Some say it's coz
You're lazy and a fool

Danger - the bitterness is in the air
And no one seems to care
Danger - the tears and the anger's everywhere
I'm telling you
Danger - the bitterness is in the air
Oh, don't you see that
No one can be happy living in the gloom
