Today is the time and moment to make my destiny
And I have planned and thought of everything in detail, you will see
For quite a while you've been hanging around the local pub
And lately I have seen you almost every weekend at my favourite club
Our eyes have met so many times but never have I seen
A hint about your feelings, if you're interested in me
I've asked my friends about you
All worth knowing I've been told
So now I have decided and I'm heading out for gold

Tonight is the night when I am gonna get you
Today is the day when I will do my deed
When I'm on the hunt there's no one to protect you
Tonight is the night when I'll succeed

Tonight is the night when I am gonna get you
Today is the day when I will do my deed
When I'm on the hunt there's no one to protect you
Tonight, this is the night, when I'll succeed

Look out 'coz I'm coming for ya
There's nothing you can do 'Cos finally I've plucked up courage and decided to make my move
I've had my eyes on you baby for such a long time
And when I'm through with you
I know I'll make you hear the bells that chime
I always have enjoyed my rootless living for so long
And I've appreciated always living on my own But I'm prepared to give it up, I'd hate to cook my goose
I know I would regret it and what have I got to loose?

Tonight is the night when I am gonna get you
Today is the day when I will do my deed
When I'm on the hunt there's no one to protect you
Tonight is the night when I'll succeed

You better love somebody, better love somebody Better love somebody, love!

So now I have decided and now I'm heading out for gold

Tonight is the night when I am gonna get you
Today is the day when I will do my deed
When I'm on the hunt there's no one to protect you
Tonight is the night when I'll succeed
