Donna was seventeen and
And she had some big dreams
She wanted to be a big star and
Move away out to LA

She's having a rough time now
'Cause she's pregnant with her second child
I'm calling out your name girl
Just to let you know before you go

The storm won't last always
It's gonna be a brighter day
Don't listen to what people might say
The storm won't last always

She's living back with mama now
And her so called friends have let her down
And every night before she sleeps
I can hear her pray
Take my pain away

Wherever you're going
There is someone who really cares for you
Say Jesus can take your heart and Make brand new if you let Him in, just let Him in

The storm won't last always
It's gonna be a brighter day
Don't listen to what people might say
The storm won't last always

Lord, I'm so tired of this pain
And I know that You are the only one
That I can depend on right now
So if You please help me, just help

No matter what people say
You can make it anyway
You don't have to be afraid
I know the Lord will make a way
All my burden He will
Gods love will never change

The storm won't last always
It's gonna be a brighter day
Don't listen to what people might say
The storm won't last always
