Waiting outside for you to come around
Hoping I won't see you with another man
The days have taught me that I should understand That there's no way I could live without you, mmm

So tonight I wanna take a stand
I want to feel all that you can feel, wanna take your hand
Tonight, [babe] tonight

All the sadness in the world
Can't express all the feelings running through me
I regret every moment every moment that I spent without you

So tonight I wanna take a stand
I want to feel all that you can feel, wanna take your
hand
Tonight, [babe] tonight
