(Verse 1)

I've searched every place, every corner of the earth
I've looked inside and out, for the feeling I get, when I look you in the Face.

(Chorus)

You're a treasure, hidden between the lines
Falling between the miles
I wish I could just stand
But I have to find you
Ooooh, Ooooh

(Verse 2)

My life darkened out, when your smile went away
It left me helpless, it left me weak.
Why is it so hard for you to be here?
Why is it so dark, will you please come near?

(Chorus)

You're a treasure, hidden between the lines
Falling between the miles
I wish I could just stand
But I have to find you
Ooooh, Ooooh
