"Everfall"

You took a walk on the shape of my heart
And left there warmth of resumption
Some say "love's cruel", "makes you blind"
I've ran out of patinece, no hesitation

It took so long to look you in the eye
No one can let me down

Breathe me and see
How it feels when i look at you
I just wanna dream
Right next to you
Laid down in falling leaves

I wrote the ending so many times
But i was never able to start it
With you here with your hand in mine
I'm ready to say the words worth sayin'

It took so long to look you in the eye
No one can let me down

Breathe me and see
How it feels when i look at you
I just wanna dream
Right next to you

I'd never let you go
I could never ever let go
Someone like you
I wanna know you close
Love you truly forever
Baby i need you
