"Time"

I don't like Time.
Time is making me old, but I'm doing all right.
Cause I will still be young tomorrow.
And I can't stand working all day.
Work is wearing out my soul.
Think I'll go out tonight, and I will call in sick tomorrow.
I get so down about this world sometimes.
I cannot understand people. No, not at all
But I hope to see a change in man.
I hope to see us love one another and I know we can.
My bank account is running out.
I'm paying fees for overdrafts
But when I win the lottery, I'll tell B of A that they can kiss my ass.
Cause I don't like Time
Time's ticking away my life
So I live the way I want to live, and I will love this way till
I am dead.
When Life gets hard you've got to remember who you are
And forget about what people think.
Just be who you want to be
Don't you want to see how good life can be?
Let's make a harmony.
Oh aye oh.
And life will sing.
And I'll wait for you to come home.
I haven't seen you in so long
I don't remember what you look like
So I will see you for the first time.
And I've been dreaming of the open road
I've got this feeling like I won't be coming home anytime soon.
Let's go around this world and make it new.
And I said Oh, let's get lost.
Let's walk into the dark
And forget about our sorrows.
We'll learn to let go.
Oh, I know we can.
Don't you want to see how good life can be?

Lets make a harmony
Oh aye oh
And life will sing.
