"Shed The Skin"

swallow your eyes
circle the tired
survive
sharing the light we have lost
you might believe
that it was so lost forcing us down into another belief to carry us home forcing us down into
you wrote the words
swallow your rights
sample the sweetness of your life show me what it means to be free
you might believe
that it was so wrong
forcing us down into
another belief to carry us home
forcing us down into
but you wrote the words
I feel like I shed my skin

we've done it this time we've lost all self control follow us this time
I wish I could
imprisoned this time when will the truth be told
follow us this time
you might believe
forcing us down into
another disease that's killing us off so wrong
we're so wrong
I feel like I shed my skin
