See mother will
Hold the children from the all worlds' pain
Father still
Holds deep with eyes of hate
Folding our arms
And the happiness
Falls apart
For, all was unknown
Until you create, the game

So it's time
Clear our minds
Underground
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes

Follow the gun
Quench the thirst for love
That you had kept from
Only son that has held you up so high
Felt like the world has been pushed away
And back again
When, mother will you
Protect all of us, somehow

So this time
Clear our minds
Underground
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes

Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
