Faith in her hair Green in her eye
Breath of her air keeps birds in flight

Wearing your flat foot is a curse
Racing her high heeled universe

Sky as a pie sheâ€™ll bake for you
Ask for the sun sheâ€™ll shine for you

She gives wings to a little girl
She gives fine to a frowning world but
She brings no striped rainbows to the table

Ask for the one and receive all
All for the one as all need all

Ray of the star for everyone
Piece of her mind in your kitchen

Polish the moon and raise the tide
Goodness from her to every side

She forgets what your mother donâ€™t
Sheâ€™s the will when you say I wonâ€™t but
She brings no striped rainbows to the table

Which planet can she bring you down
Which color Green, red, black or brown

God made the Sand for everyone
Sand in the hand and you are done

Blank in the bank sheâ€™ll get you there
Sandra the devil wouldnâ€™t dare

She sings bright for the burning light
She gives blind to the oversight but
She brings no striped rainbows to the table
