It only took one look at your face
In seconds I know you are the one
I'd be with night and day, only one moment
To know you'll be all that matters to me

It only took one look from your eyes
They sparkled just like the stars above
You brighten up my life in just one minute
You captured my heart exclusively
Forever you and me

As sure as the bird
Fly over the mountain
And sure as the fish
That live in the deep blue sea
I just gotta tell you
That you're all of that to me

Like roses blooming in the springtime
Like walkin' in the summer rain
Like goin' in front of a fire place
When winter comes back again

Like a sound of the waves in the ocean
Washin' up on a beach
I just wanna tell you
That you're all of that to me

It only took one touch of your lips
When kissing you took my breath away
To you my love i give in a blink of time
I had no one at all, now you're all that matters to me

As sure as the bird
Fly over the mountain
And sure as the fish
That live in the deep blue sea
I just gotta tell you
That you're all of that to me

Like roses blooming in the springtime
Like walkin' in the summer rain

Like goin' in front of a fire place
When winter comes back again

Like a sound of the waves in the ocean
Washin' up on a beach
I just wanna tell you
That you're all of that to me

Like roses blooming in the springtime
Like walkin' in the summer rain
Like goin' in front of a fire place
When winter comes back again

Like a sound of the waves in the ocean
Washin' up on a beach
I just wanna tell you
That you're all of that to me

You mean so much to me
I just wanna tell you
That you're all of that to me
That you're all of that to me
That you're all of that to me
