Look back, look high, tell me what do you see here
Oh trees, sky, sunshine, is it what you imagined?
And picture this, so far away, can you see it?
And I'm not quite sure what we need

Hello, universe
Tell me your secrets
Don't make the mistakes that they did through a lifetime
Just don't make the mistakes that they did
Don't make the mistakes that they did through a
lifetime

And we'll aim for the heavens now
Encourage yourself to find a reason
To understand why they're hiding
And teach yourself to be the difference
And teach yourself it's a good thing
Let's not forget why we're here now, will we?
Am I the one? Are you troubled?
You were made for a reason, our back up
In case the sun can't make it, surprise us

Hello, universe
Tell me your secrets
Don't make the mistakes that they did through a
lifetime
Just don't make the mistakes that they did
Don't make the mistakes that they did through a
lifetime

Hello, universe
Tell me your secrets
Don't make the mistakes that they did through a
lifetime
Just don't make the mistakes that they did
Don't make the mistakes that they did through a
lifetime

The wars will fight it out
The kids will play forever
Friends move on without you

It keeps spinning
And you take things for granted
And you'll sleep through today
And it's alright to go without you
It's okay, have your day

And we'll aim for the heavens this time
It's something that can last a lifetime
And we'll aim for the heavens this time

Hello, universe
Tell me your secrets
Don't make the mistakes that they did through a
lifetime
Just don't make the mistakes that they did
Don't make the mistakes that they did through a
lifetime

Hello, universe
(Redesign the past, go back, or I'll miss)
Tell me your secrets
(Redesign the past, go back, or I'll miss)
Don't make the mistakes that they did through a
lifetime
Just don't make the mistakes that they did
Don't make the mistakes that they did through a
lifetime
