Enemy!

Not your cross to bear, not your who goes there
Not the need to talk, not the time at all
Not restriction free, not the who to be (not me)
Not a long lost friend, not a lifeless trend

Sick of what you think of me
Stand back instinctively
Take a look then listen to me:
I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy

Sick of what you think of me
Stand back instinctively
Take a look then listen to me:
I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy

Not the here nor there, not the hole in the air
Not a story run, not to blame the gun
Not world industry, not pollution free
Not to be ?a rathe?, not to take the bait

Sick of what you think of me
Stand back instinctively
Take a look then listen to me:
I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy

Sick of what you think of me
Stand back instinctively
Take a look then listen to me:
I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy

Not a fuckin' freak, not select elite

Not got up tonight, not believe the hype
Not a regular guy, not see eye to I
Not a circumstance, not to miss the chance

Sick of what you think of me
Stand back instinctively
Take a look then listen to me:
I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy

Sick of what you think of me
Stand back instinctively
Take a look then listen to me:
I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy
I'm not your enemy

Who? Me?

(Not the grown-up type, not yet see the light
Not know what to do, not enough for you
Not I do not know, not gonna take no more
Not at all mad, not the never had)
