These are the waining days of Rock n Roll
It's gonna die God rest it's soul
So say good bye to Rock n Roll
Say good bye SO SAY GOOD BYE
GOOD BYE TO ROCK N ROLL
I need a rock that supports
Looking for the way out
Cause this weight has started crushing me
Help me find the way out
I need someone with the power to make things right
Frist thing I'm gonna do is say good-bye tonite
Give it up, let it go
Looking for the way out
Turn around, say good bye
Help me find the way out
I'm not too good at this
I'm not too good
I need a plan that's easy
I'm not too good
I need someone with the power to make things right
First thing I'm gonna do is say good bye tonite!

Give it up, let it go
Help me find the way out
Turn around and say goodbye
Looking for the way out
Let's roll I've found the Key
But say goodbye before you leave

But am I stroung enough to stand alone?
I know I can't maintain to survive
I need the easy way
I don't know where this road will lead
But would you save some space for me?
I just need one moment
Please say good bye before we leave

I need a rock that supports
Cause this weight has started crushing me
I need someone with the power to make things right
First thing I'm gonna do is say good bye tonite

I need a rock that will last
To fill these holes from the past
I need someone with the power to save my life
First thing I'm gonna do is say good-bye tonite!
