It's like the movie intermission but lost without a vision, Don't know what to expect no more feels like there's something missing
You're the closest things to me right now, don't want to let you slip away
Faded is my day to day, the hurricane is pulling me through

My heart is heavy and deep (Can't let this get too deep)
And now it's getting too deep (Can't let this get too deep)

I wanna runaway escape from this -- my life feels like a movie
Don't know what dream this is to be in and god I feel so numb
The only thing that gets me through is thinking about me and you
The silence is what's killing me, I living in a fantasy

My heart is heavy and deep (Can't let this get too deep)
And I just sit here and weep (Can't let this get too deep)

I wanna leave it all... oh...
Go to where you are and drop everything

Coz that's where I'm supposed to be,
Coz that's where I'm supposed to be,
Coz that's where I'm supposed to be,
And that's where I'm supposed to see,

Someone tell me what this is, do you even know what love is?
Can't get my mind around it and it's killing me inside Everyday I think about the things we gonna do Planning all my life to be walking right beside you

My heart is heavy and deep (Can't let this get too deep)
And I just sit here and weep (Can't let this get too deep)

Sometimes you take on my mind

I feel the same emotion in me all the time
It's too late
I fight everyone
I fuck everything
And leave it behind

Coz there is where I wanna be, (there is where I wanna be) Coz there is where I wanna be, (there is where I wanna
be) Coz there is where I wanna be, (there is where I wanna
Coz there is where I wanna be,

My heart is heavy and deep (Can't let this get too deep)
And now it's getting too deep (Can't let this get too deep)
