Lovesick

I've been getting this weird kind of feeling
Inside of my soul today
All my friends think I need to see a doctor
A doctor right away
~Cause it happens every time I see your face
I hear your name I start to go insane
Maybe I just need to go back to bed and rest my head

I go up, I go down, spin me around
My vision is hazy, it happens lately
The doctor he don't know what to say
He's calling this a case

Of lovesick gone crazy
Of lovesick gone crazy, yeah
Of lovesick gone crazy
Lovesick gone crazy, yeah

This ain't like any other ordinary cold
I've never felt this feeling before
I need help, I'm sending out the SOS
So someone come and find me

And it happens every time I see your face
I hear your name I start to go insane
Maybe I just need to go back to bed, and rest my head

I go up, I go down, spin me around
My vision is hazy it happens lately
The doctor he don't know what to say
He's calling this a case

Of lovesick gone crazy
Of lovesick gone crazy, yeah
Of lovesick gone crazy

Lovesick gone crazy, yeah

The doctor might not know what to do
But I'm still falling over you

ohhhhh yeah

I go up, I go down, spin me around
My vision is hazy, it happens lately
The doctor he don't know what to say
He's calling this a case
Of lovesick gone crazy
Of lovesick gone crazy, yeah
Of lovesick gone crazy
Lovesick gone crazy, yeah
Lovesick gone crazy
