Can't get you out of my mind
So I, try and get space go outside
But then there you are Never very far from me here
Try and discuss the simplicity and love of a
Wood burning fire, in front of me
Think of other times
Ignore wishes that you were mine

Bright, bright lights
Spotlight makes it hard to see the stars at night
Everyday has become my stage and I
Feel I have made
One, two, three many mistakes

Lets go the speed of light
So we can stop, stand still in time six seventy one
Million miles an hour we'll run
Exist with our own rules of the world
Where things that happen here aren't told
Cover up with the truth
That I'm not really with you

(chorus)

What is fair in this fake world of reality
I am scared that you'll go home and forget about me
Is it yet windy enough for the city to just blow you away
Have you gathered enough facts for you and I to be okay
If the high road is the road we must take
Well instead I've now decided we don't need roads
We'll float away
We'll float away

We'll float away

(chorus)

One two three many mistakes
One two three many mistakes

One two three many mistakes

Bright, bright, lights.
