The mind a machine
Born with error
With the cosmic waves pulling apart
The fabric of our time

So many streams of light
Piercing through the unknown
So many reasons why
Only one path is followed

We are nothing
Without the chaos inside
Pulling us to our destiny

We are
Discordant free minds
Tracing the future
The parallel hangs in our thoughts
And still we wonder

So many streams of light
Piercing through the unknown
So many reasons why
Only one path is followed

We are nothing
Without the chaos inside
Pulling us to our destiny
We are nothing
Without this energy
Controlling us from beyond our thoughts

Divert from reality
Step into what could be
With no such recourse
I fall into the infinity of thought

So many stream of light
Piercing through the unknown
So many reasons why
Only one path is followed

We are nothing
Without the chaos inside
Pulling us to our destiny
We are nothing
Without this energy
Controlling us from beyond our thoughts
