

The Never Ever "Breathe"

You've got the heart but I've got the heartbeat.
I've got three words but I'm losing slowly.
I take her hand but she tries to let go.
I'm moving forward, she's moving too slow.

You want diamonds, I don't need a best friend.
I'm always trying, trying to forget.
Answer me this, when you said forever, did you take the for and replace it with never?

What would I know?

We're a heart attack waiting and the beat, it is racing.
Breathe in just to leave me breathless.
The world won't wait for the young and reckless.
We're a heart attack waiting and the beat, it is racing.
Breathe in, breathe out, breathe in just to leave me breathless.

You're spinning lies, you speak them through clenched teeth.
Take off your mask girl 'cause I see what's beneath.
I'll never know what you'll never tell me but I'll always see what you'll never show me.

Breathe in, breathe out, breathe in just to leave me
breathless again.
