Standing out in the crowd Pretty baby and I see that you are in need of some reason?
Now its time to get it on
Because the loss will be on me

I show you what I mean

I'm a sweet temptation, give me a try
But tell me sugar how are you gonna taste it
When you're over there
When you should be rocking with me

(Chorus)

Hands up, do right
Keep yourself moving till the early light
I will keep it going till I set your heart on fire

Don't look at me like I've got something to give Cause I'm not the kind of guy you should be messin with
And you can bet that I will be the mesh? that set you on fire

She wants to know what it meant to me
Last night, but little baby I gotta warn you
I'm a sheep devil and a hex that keeps following me

Since I was 17

I'm a lone gun in the firefight
And you know that I've got my reasons
I don't care about nothing baby, but your in my way yeah

(Chorus)

Hands up, do it right
Keep yourself moving till the early light
I will keep it going till I set your heart on fire

Don't look at me like I've got something to give Cause I'm not the kind of (...that messin will)???

fire

Go!

(Solo)

Go go go go go go
Oh no!

(Chorus)

Hands up, do it right
Keep yourself moving till the early light
I will keep it going till I set your heart on fire

Don't look at me like I've got something to give Cause I'm not the kind of (...that fucking will)???
And you can bet that I will be the mesh? that set you on
fire

Set you on fire, set you on fire, set you fire!
