I'll Remember You
(Paul Sallee and Bree Iafelice)

That day together
Do you remember?
We always hoped it
Would last forever
We were both escaping everyone
I wish that sometimes
That I could rewind
To start again and
Erase our goodbye
We would both escape from everyone

Every night in every way I know the truth
But all that I can see has been the way
That I remember you
This is the way I'll remember you

The day seems so long
When nothing goes wrong
The night reminds me
Of somewhere we've gone
I am left escaping everyone
If I had one list
Of all that I miss
The waiting, wanting
Of knowing your kiss
I am left escaping everyone

Every night in every way I know the truth
But all that I can see has been the way
That I remember you
This is the way I'll remember you.
