

The New Velvet "Gone"

Are we worth all that I'm fighting for A weakened voice echo's right off your closed door
I'm still here waiting, and I don't know why
You make love a constant struggle
You... so now I'm

Gone, Gone
Baby your so cold to me, I give you what I got but you're makin' me leave
Gone

I stay awake staring at the walls in my room
Hard to sleep, cause in our fight my mind's consumed
You shut me down, I take it and I don't know why
You make love a constant struggle
You...so now I'm

Gone, Gone
Baby your so cold to me, I give you what I got but
you're makin' me leave
Gone

Gone, Gone
Baby your so cold to me, I give you what I got but
you're makin' me leave
Gone, Gone, Gone
you're makin' me leave
Gone, Gone, Gone...
