Finally what you are is the same that we are everyone
You do infeasible dreams
Like everyone
You will learn to love if you learn to suffer
Like everyone

So discover the snake of your soul
Think deeper
Think deeper
Discover the joy of your life
Think deeper
Think deeper

The way is an opened to the violet
The knowledge of your self
Please find yourself

Grey loves my God
Sinking me in pain
My hearted body will soon expire
I will be waiting

So discover the snake of your soul
Think deeper
Think deeper
Discover the joy of your life
Think deeper
Think deeper
