Look at this, here it is
A call from loneliness
Is blowin' up my phone

Another text, what a wreck
Maybe you should hit eject
And just move on

Baby, you made this bed
So why don't you lay in it?

If you're feeling empty
If you really miss my touch
If you finally realize
It ain't gonna matter much

If you're thinking somehow
That you're gonna fix this
Baby get real
Now you know how it feels

Took a chance, now you can't
Seem to understand
That you get what you give

How do I make this clear to you?
Just so you don't stay confused
Yeah, it is what it is

Truth is it hurts a little baby
When you get what you deserve

If you're feeling empty
If you really miss my touch
If you finally realize
It ain't gonna matter much

If you're thinking somehow
That you're gonna fix this
Baby get real
Now you know how it feels

When you're down on your knees
And you can't stop cryin'
Can't stop cryin'

Oh

If you're feeling empty
If you really miss my touch
If you finally realize

Now you're feeling empty
Now you really miss my touch
Now you finally realize

Now you're thinking somehow
That you're gonna fix this

Oh

Baby get real, yeah

Oh oh, oh
Oh oh, oh
