So this is what I'm made of
I'm fairytale and dreams
I wish I was a sunbeam
So this is what I'm made of
I'm fairytale and dreams
I came in from the deep just to be with you

Listen to my dreams as they crash into the pave walk
Listen to my dreams as they crash into the pave walk

We're so far gone
What am I to do
Yeah we're so far gone
I hope we'll make it through

So this is what we came for
To tear it all apart
So hazy is the sky now
Oh is this not what we came for
To make a brand new start
No plea for resurrection

Listen to my dreams as they crash into the pave walk
Listen to my dreams as they crash into the pave walk

We're so far gone
What am I to do
Yeah we're so far gone
I hope we'll make it through

Earth is holy
We are holy

We're so far gone
What am I to do
Yeah we're so far gone
I hope we'll make it through
