Oh, I heard there's summer, a little further down the road and I am (just) stuck here, just like a goldfish in a bowl Think I need some sunlight to shine into the depths of this wounded heart
I'm leaving Sweden , I think, I need a brand new start Now what are you gonna do, slit your wrists and bleed away?
Cause I can't leave
No I can't leave and I can't stay

Oh I guess I have to keep on running as long as there's stories to be told Cause when it's over, when it's over oh what's left but being cold
Oh you shiver you say I look so goddamn fine
And oh, Oh you're a trigger on the , on the border line Now what I'm gonna do, I gotta save this drowning soul
I'm stuck , I'm stuck here, just like a goldfish in a bowl
Just like a goldfish

Oh, I'm restless, oh I am more than flesh and bone Oh you want everybody and I don't need to be alone Oh I don't think that this country 's big enough for the two of us
Oh each time I see you my self esteem just turns to dust
Now what you're gonna do Watch me burn and drink
Well I can't watch, oh I can't leave and I can't stay
I can't leave and I can't stay
