I met Mr Fire, he gave me two good reasons to burn
I met Mr Teacher, he gave my questions one more turn And I met Mr Frequent Flyer and he gave me some extra points
On the pleasure of enjoying yourself between the joints

And I met Mr Agitator at the bus stop today, but when he isn't with his fanclub he doesn't have that much to say
No, he was a little bit quiet, he was a little bit quiet,
And that was good
Cause it means I didn't have to hit him
And I didn't have to be so misunderstood

Â´Cause IÂ´ve had enough of talking
Of all the misters
They talk about love between us like weÂ´re
Brothers and sisters and they
Lie until they believe themselves I said they Lie until they believe
Lie until they believe themselves I said they
Lie until they believe

And I met Mr Whaleshark in the ocean far away
And I know itÂ´'s not meant to be but show me
WhereÂ´'s a love for me?
And I guess IÂ´m a little lonely, but hey,
IÂ´m still alive
And if I donÂ´t wanna lose it, well I guess I better dive

Â´Cause IÂ´ve had enough of talking
Of all the misters,
They talk Â´bout love between us like weÂ´re
Brothers and sisters and they
Lie until they believe themselves I said they
Lie until they believe
Lie until they believe themselves I said they Lie until they believe
