Did she come around in the early morning
Did she dig way down in the well of you
Oh I come around in the early morning
But I don't even know if someone's there with you

Nanana

And now you're standing scraping on my backdoor
(Do) you think I'll open up and let you in?
And reconnect the wires to the bad times
To think that you were once close beneath my skin ohohâ€¦!

Did you think that posher would be better?
Was I just too natural for your friends?
Maybe my connections' all that mattered?
Was I just a free ride to the end?

Ohoho..

I keep the letters you wrote
Each little note
On how you really felt
I keep the letters you wrote
And oh how you spoke
On how you never loved before
On how you never loved before

Nanaâ€¦!
