I wasn't looking for a lover, just a friend to hang around
I wasn't planning for the future just trying to make it through the day
I was crying at the chapel and you knew just what that meant
We were two souls in need of rescue thought our friendship would never end
I thought it'd never end

But then you said I made you feel unfaithful
You said I made you feel unfaithful

Then it all went quiet no more phone calls like the calm before the storm and I was cold confused and lonely guess our friendship had kept me warm

But then it came a broken letter with the words of plain goodbye
You couldn't stand to be around me now I know the reason why I know the reason why...

Cause then you said I made you feel unfaithful
You said I made you feel unfaithful...

Oh please don't speak those words to me 'cause I don't wanna hear no....

I wasn't looking for a lover, just a friend to hang
I wasn't planning for the future, trying to make it
through the day
I was crying at the chapel and you knew just what that
We were two souls in need of rescue thought our
friendship would never end
