"Claim To Pain"

Visit "Claim To Pain" on MotoLyrics.com

A stiff drink to manage misfortunes of life
A puff of the right herb diminishes strife
A pill that will put you to sleep in your bed
Unconscious instead

I'm claiming the right to feel all my pain
To cherish my anguish grow old and insane
To undergo sickness and terror I'll fall
To suffer existence
I claim them all

Wake from your slumber to face the new day
A couple of capsules and aches go away
Hunger to find more whatever the cost
Your will in life lost

I'm claiming the right to feel all my pain
To cherish my anguish grow old and insane
To undergo sickness and terror I'll fall
To suffer existence
I claim them all

A sniff of white power makes everything right
As long as you're flying you're not as uptight
Inject contentment the needle expels
The lies that it tells

I'm claiming the right to feel all my pain
To cherish my anguish grow old and insane
To undergo sickness and terror I'll fall
To suffer existence
I claim them all
