When I was young
I stared at the sky
Pushed down my arms
And pretended to fly
Back then they let you keep an open mind
Your words will never get in
We are made of diamond skin
Born from the cold
We were made to shine like this

We've come too far
To give up on this
To give up on everything we lived our lives for
We fought too hard
To just let them win
Don't give up and dream for your dreams to live

It takes a whole life to find
The magic that makes the fire burn inside
Once it unites to
Will always have that lie
To guide your way through the cold
As a fault, just trying to pick out your soul
Give all your heart
And we'll never let them in

Can you hear them say
We've come too far
To give up on this
To give up on everything we lived our lives for
We fought too hard
To just let them win
Don't give up and dream for your dreams to live

Try and stop us and we'll grow stronger
Your dream to live
Try and stop us and we'll grow stronger
Your dream to live
Try and stop us and we'll grow stronger
Try and stop us and (Your dream..)
Try and stop us and (To...)
Try and stop us and we'll grow stronger (Live....)

Your dream to live

Yeahhhh...

Try and stop us and we'll grow stronger
Try and stop us and we'll grow stronger

We've come too far
To give up on this
To give up on everything we lived our lives for
We fought too hard
To just let them win
Don't give up and dream for your dreams to live
Your dream to live
