Fall into my arms trust that I'm the man for you love me for me, just me and i will love you will you be there for me for ups and downs when i am on top and kicked to the ground I'll tell you my feelings, the ones deep inside surrender the world, let you in my life when i go back to the states, you'll come with me right, stand tall with pride be your dream that compliments mine whisper in my ear, everything gonna be alright i can finally sleep at night, I have found my divine I stay mysterious, that is the nature of life reveal yourself to me baby, give it everything you got i sing my heart out every moment i live when its quiet, i like the quiet, lets dig the silence listen to each other breathe and just be still.

I'm your man
listen to your man
tell your friends, that he's the one for me
