I won't let your fight get lost on the fall
I won't let your dreams runaway in the dark
I still recall the way you are and that look in your eyes
I still recall the way you are and that look in your eyes
Can't hear the sound, I got ringing in my ear
I still feel the pain, I've carried with me for years
I still recall the way you are and that look in your eyes

You could leave when the walls fall down
I can tell by the look in your eyes
When your alone on the rope and if you can't find no
hope
Don't look down, don't look down
Woooo-oooooh, woooo-oooooh, woooo-oooooh, woooo-
ooooh
You could leave when the walls fall down
I can tell by the look in your eyes
When your alone on the rope and if you can't find no
Don't look down, don't look down
Woooo-oooooh, woooo-oooooh, woooo-oooooh, woooo-
ooooh
