Stop the clocks and turn the world around, let your love
lay me down

And when the night is over thereâ€™ll be no sound
Lock the box and leave it all behind on the backseat of my mind

And when the night is over where will I rise?

What if Iâ€™m already dead, how would I know?

What if Iâ€™m already dead, how would I know?

Lost inside my head behind a wall, do they hear me when I call?

And when the night is over where will I fall?

And when the fight is over where will I fall?

What if Iâ€™m already dead, how would I know?

What if Iâ€™m already dead, how would I know?

Stop the clocks and turn the world around, let your love
lay me down

And when the night is over thereâ€™ll be no sound

And when the night is over thereâ€™ll be no sound

And now the night is over thereâ€™ll be no sound, sound...
