I hang around and stare at the scene it's unbelievable and obscene so fucking decadent and so clean it's like a fucking film to me a sudden sound is smashing my ears a sudden light is feeding my fears a sudden breeze is drying my tears and then you're there and talk to me so tell me do you see what I see?
and tell me do you feel what I feel?
and tell me do you know what I mean?
it's like a fucking malady
I can't believe it happen's to me
I try to run but I cannot flee I hope you've come to rescue me:
it's a fucking anniversary!
don't try to deny me
still hang around here watching the scene it's very elegant and so green so fucking chic, you know what I mean it's like a fucking trip to me a sudden touch is hitting me hard a sudden warmth is eating my heart a sudden feeling tears me apart are you still here to stay with me? now tell me do you see what I see?

and tell me do you feel what I feel?
and tell me do you know what I mean?
it fills me up with agony
I can't believe it happens to me this is not where I wanted to be I hope you've come to set me free:
it's a fucking anniversary!
don't try to deny me
don't try to deny me
don't try to treat me like that
