Verse 1:

I lost control when I crashed into you.
I lost my mind when you dosed it in love.
You got me compelled am I going insane.
I got no will, got no choice.

Bridge:

I'm losing myself as I'm falling.
Jealous rage when your glance strolls.
Six feet under I've fallen, I've fallen.
I've fallen so hard.

Verse 2:

Ice love breaker I hope that's not you.
Cause another ache will have me down and out.
You're my lucky charm four times green.
Don't wish too hard, don't squeeze our love.

Bridge:

I'm losing myself as I'm falling.
Jealous rage when your glance strolls.
Six feet under I've fallen, I've fallen.
I've fallen so hard.

Breakdown:

Fickle lovers take in dying flames.
Sleeping ego is what shields our love.
Shields our love, shields our love.
Sleeping ego is what shields our love.
