Your heart is silent
So you follow your feet
To anywhere, to anyone
Forbidden fruit you choose to eat

I feel, I feel I'm going out of my mind
I feel, I feel you're living your life in lies
Don't tell me why

I'm tired of fighting
So sick of seeing you cry
Through all the tears, these wasted years
My phoenix fears in you rise again

Don't tell me why you had to
They say forgiveness is divine I say that's fine now
They say forgiveness is divine
I can't deny
But tonight I'll be human
