Everyday I got you on my mind
Everyday I just keep it all inside
You got me tripping
Because I want you bad
And you don't know
But if you give me a chance
Oh baby we'd find romance
Come and tell me are you ready to go

You got me tripping
Now baby tell me what I gotta do
Coz when I'm laying in my bed
And you pop into my head
All I wanna do is get with you

Everyday round and round
I think about the times and the love I've found
Oh baby, baby
Everyday round and round
My head is in the clouds and it won't be coming down
Oh baby, baby

Everyday I just can't find the time
I just wanna say
A girl like you is hard to find

You got me tripping
Because I want you bad
And you don't know
But if you give me a chance
Oh baby we'd find romance
Come and tell me are you ready to go

You got me tripping
Now baby tell me what I gotta do
Coz when I'm laying in my bed
And you pop into my head
All I wanna do is get with you

Everyday round and round
I think about the times and the love I've found
Oh baby, baby

Everyday round and round
My head is in the clouds and it won't be coming down
Oh baby, baby

Well there she goes again
Running circles round my head
Yeah I know just what you're saying
But you know the girl is mine
Well maybe I can get her
If I show her what I got

What you got, I got double
C'mon give it a shot

You trying to take my girl
Trying to mess around with Mrs. Right

No, but how can I be happy
When I dream of her at night
There she is up in my head
Every time I close my eyes
So I think I'm gonna call her
Just to see if she replies

You got me tripping

You got me tripping
Now tell me baby what I gotta do
Coz when I'm laying in my bed
And you pop into my head

Everybody round and round
I think about the times and the love I've found
Oh baby, baby
Everyday round and round
Oh baby, baby

Everybody round and round
Oh baby, baby
Everyday round and round
Oh baby, baby
