Well i called to tell you that there's nothing left of me for you to break
and I move on with caution
cause I know right now you'll lie to me again

well that's alright
I'm OK
I've been through this a thousand times
This time is my mistake

Well, what if I had told you?
what if I said this is for the best?
Would you just turn your head and walk away?
or would you throw it back in my face?
What if I Told you?
what if I said this is for the best?
Then I'll just keep these scars to remind me
not to think of you again

What if I moved on?
Cause I know you're just like all the rest
What if I moved on?
I'm not gonna let this happen to me again

well, I'm alright
well, I'm OK
I've been through this a thousand times
This time is my mistake
Well, what if I had told you?
what if I said this is for the best?
Would you just turn your head and walk away?
or would you throw it back in my face?
What if I Told you?
what if I said this is for the best?
Then I'll just keep these scars to remind me
not to think of you again

well, I'm alright
well, I'm OK
I've been through this a thousand times

This time is my mistake

Well, what if I had told you?
what if I said this is for the best?
Would you just turn your head and walk away?
or would you throw it back in my face?
What if I Told you?
what if I said this is for the best?
Then I'll just keep these scars to remind me
not to think of you again
