last night i just stood there while you talked and i don't why i didn't say anything at all well, maybe i'm just tired of this too all broken down and bruised tell me, what am I to do? when she said...

we are, we are, we are, we are through
she said
we are, we are, we are through so turn around, forget all you know about me cause this is over well i don't know how it all came down to this I'll end it all right now with this last kiss but I'll fall apart when i get home tonight swallow all my pride won't let her know a little piece of me died when she said...
she said
cause this is over
forget all the lies I told you'll get over it
turn around now
and I'll just disappear
cause this is over [break]
cause she said...
she said
cause this is over
cause this is over (2x) yeah this is over this is over

so turn around, forget all you know about me
cause this is over
