Compressing my tears but they start to flow
Asking my heart where did he go (go)
Felt what seemed real for the very first time
Thought I had some to call mine

Where did you go
Why did you leave
Was there a her or was it just me
The pieces don't fit
You're not saying why
Your're being evasive do you need a alibi

So I'm asking myself
Did I know you
Was it just us
Or was it more than two

I'm going down and down over you boy
I'm going down and down going round and round
Over you

I'm a complete mess right now
Unanswered questions who, what, when, and how
I call but seems no ones ever at home
(I know you hear me blowing you up)
The worst feeling ever felt is being alone

Where did you go
Why did you leave
Was there a her or was it just me
The pieces don't fit
You're not saying why
Your're being evasive do you need a alibi

So I'm asking myself
Did I know you
Was it just us
Or was it more than two

I'm going down and down over you boy
I'm going down and down going round and round
Over you

Makes me wonder if another girl has caught your eye
(caught your eye)
Cause it feels like I'm just being pushed to the back of the line (push me to the back of the line)
No longer talk we just text we just text on the phone
You sending one letter now I know somethings wrong
I don't wanna be alone even though you did me wrong
Tell me if it's worth holding on

Where did you go
Why did you leave
Was there a her or was it just me
The pieces don't fit (don't fit)
You're not saying why
Your're being evasive do you need a alibi

So I'm asking myself (self)
Did I know you (you)
Was it just us (us)
Or was it more than two

I'm going down and down over you boy
I'm going down and down going round and round
Over you
