Stopping by at this none exotic place
Fill our lungs with this none exotic space
But we have to stay

Can't go back to the time we left behind
Where the moon and the stars were seen by blind
We just have to stay

It's all the things you say and do
The only part of you I knew

Reconstruct feelings lost inside my brain
Take a minute to separate the chain
Destination is unknown for today
But my mind is the place where I think I'll stay

Soon it will be lost

It's the place where I spent all nights and days
But now the place where the evil man betrays

Soon it will be lost

It's all the things you say and do
The only part of you I knew

All the things you say and do. (Makes me want to cry)
If you want to take me home (I will vanish in the sky)
