Dont forget this one last song
One last chance to prove you wrong
Its a long way down
In the wrong direction

As i lay here I think about
A past of glory I can't live without
But theres no such thing
There it lies just a dream

You can guide me after all
There's a clue in every word
I will rise until I fall
I have the strength to get back up and go

Whoa
Now im on my own
Got no where else to go
Whoa
Life's leading me to go
Down the road to somewhere
Intentions lead to me
Down the road to somewhere

Will I wonder in every direction
There I go on this path to perfection
Keep moving on and on
Since my past is gone

I remember that cold december
Now I pray to what's up above me
Still no answer yet
As I lie here waiting

You can guide me after all
There's a clue in every word
I will rise until I fall
I have the strength to get back up and go

Whoa
Now im on my own
Got no where else to go

Whoa
Life's leading me to go
Down the road to somewhere
Intentions lead to me
Down the road to somewhere

Whoa
Now im on my own
Got no where else to go
Whoa
Life's leading me to go
Down the road to somewhere
Whoa
Now im on my own
Whoa
Intentions bring to me
Down the road to somewhere (yea)
