Cold dark sea
wrapping it's arms around me pulling me down to the deep all eyes on me.

I push you away
although I wish you to stay So many words left unsaid but I'm all out of bed.

So go go get out of here
Go away get out of here
Go go get out of here
Go away get out of here
Go go get out of here
Go away gey out of here
Go go get out of here
Go away.

Cold dark sea
your waves around killing me I close my eyes to fall asleep
All eyes on me
Your eyes on me.
