I had a lonely feeling,
I time in need of healing " changes,
They happen every day.
And all the people trying,
To stop the tears and crying " angels,
And still they wonder.
Where life holds a reason why,
In time for all that we know.

(CHORUS)

Open skies, on the other side.
It's only raining in your mind.
It's only raining.

I see the children's faces,
In dark and foreign places " angels,
Who never wonder why.
And all the old men reading,
Meanwhile their pages bleeding " changes,
And still they wonder.
Where life holds a reason why,
In time for all that we know

(CHORUS)

Open skies, on the other side.
It's only raining in your mind.
Open skies, when you close your eyes.
It's only raining in your mind.

Ooh, it's raining again,
Don't take me away.

With all we keep on learning,
Can't stop the world from turning over,
And still they wonder why.
Where life holds their reason why,
In time for all that we know.

(REPEAT CHORUS)
