"Anything for you." Is what you told me,
The day I sat there with you.
So I know nothing lasts forever,
When will we realize it's gone?

"Anything for you." Is what you told me,
The day I sat there with you.
Do we understand that words were not enough?
You said to me that this would last forever...

Why did we rely on the time when I, the time when I say
I cant live without you?
It's all over now-
Why you?
You walked away-
Why you?

You said that I-
You said that I don't want to work it out,
You know that I tried.
I feel like sometimes we're just wasting time.

Why did we rely on the time when I- I-
The time when I said I can't live without you?

You say to me that things have changed,
I look in your eyes and I know that things will remain the same.
You said that I, I...that I follow you here-
When we, we've lost it all again.
