So I've got a back bone
That says do it, do it
So I do it, too many emotions running through my head
I did it, your girlfriend's not that innocent
Sold my, sold my soul to an Animal, an animal, she's got it locked
In a cage, no chance of breaking the chain
Not afraid, 'cause her body is everything

[chorus]

We've been running in circles
Better break the habit, we'll fall out of focus
So what do you expect, out of a relationship with A frozen tongue
When the question comes, what do you do
What do you do, where do you run

Summer came a little too quick
I can barely remember it
It came with a consequence
Don't care 'bout the wreckage
'Cause I love every second
I forgot the lesson
When I threw out the message
Come and go x3
How come you never come anymore?

[chorus]

We've been running in circles
Better break the habit, we'll fall out of focus
So I don't believe everything that I read
But I tend to agree with the crowd
Now where's your common sense
Listen up
Take a minute to reflect on what your given
'Cause I know that your better than that

(Do it)x2

If you listen to it(what I said)x2
Wasn't meant to be taken as offensive
I was on the fence then
I did what all my friends said

(Do it)x3
Did you listen to it(what I said)x2
Wasn't meant to be taken as offensive
I was on the fence then
I did what all my friends said

But why not have to let you go
You performed as Oscar worthy show a-whoa
Can't stop it now

'Cause I'm feeling like I want it back
Now I sould back down
But my back bone's got an idea
I'm listenin'

[chorus]
We've been running in circles
Better break the habit, we'll fall out of focus
So I don't belive everything that I read
But I tend to agree with the crowd
Now where's your common sense
Listen up
Take a minute to reflect on what your given
'Cause I know your better than that
