Day break no time to be wasted
Face to face with the fakest of faces
Took a trip to all the right places
Gathered cash and ended up famous
Burning holes in our pocket
Saw something that we wanted and got it
Educated out from the office
Ivy league was never our path to cross

But we could feel it right around our chest
Was it a celebration or a test?

'ÄSomeday records will break and walls will be replaced'Ä
Always another problem we are forced to face
But when you're back and fourth'Ä
Remember everything you've learned and lost before
So wear your scars and fight your war

Can't stop the fight cause we're feeling
'ÄLike we got more than we're hearing
But it's not going to be given
Need to pay our dues a bit and live it

But we can say we're never gunna stop
Climbing up until we're starrng from the top

Someday records will break and walls will be replaced
Always another problem we are forced to face
But when you're back and fourth'Ä
Remember everything you've learned and lost before
So wear your scars and fight your war
Phoned up by the head honcho
Didn't want to sign but we had time on our side
We can live this life'Ä

Someday records will break and walls will be replaced'Ä
Always another problem we are forced to face
But when you're back and fourth
Remember everything you've learned and lost before

So wear your scars and fight your war
