You ride on time you're sliding in my eyes become your sight through me With gentle voice you talk within black surrounds the light in me

Hello, welcome, please sit inside my mind I don't deny I was waiting for a sign I've gone away so silent in this endless black sky you came at me so bright, lady in white

A ray of light dispelling silver plans you gently wash my sadness, you mesmerize my soul awaken heart, you float beyond my haze you embrace me in the soil and time slides away

I say my last goodbye when life makes the sound of dead stars falling down you take me away to the endless sky, you take me back where womb it means to die
you oniric guide

You come to take me while living would leave me suspended in between the pain and the helpless hope for a new dawn a sense of redemption obsession, possession your guidance sets me free

Oh, souls embrace staring eyes to the hell
burning land, bed of thorns I call home
